Dr. Nagle informed Secretary Lamon that instead of fulfilling the terms of the contract the contractor, with the con sent of Capt. Casey, simply dredged the sand from one spot in the river, loaded into scows and, after floating the latter to another locality about a mile away, dumped the stuff into the river again, where it could easily find its way tack to the place from which it was originally taken.

sions this Summer excursion steamboats had grounded on the sand bank thus formed greatly to the inconvenience and annoyance of passengers, and that these accidents showed that the work was not being properly conducted. In reply, Secretary Lamont on Aug
